5. Environmental justice issues and the inland port.

a. Studies of the current vulnerable population in Salt Lake City (Corbin)

Question for UPHE: Do you have studies to share, or are you asking whether EPA has available studies?

UPHE Answer: UPHE has studies already done of the nearby population regarding health outcomes like asthma rates and student school performance related to poor air quality in the area that exists from multiple source (airport, heavy industry, and freeway). Some of the authors of those studies and a local school principal will be part of our presentation at our meeting on the 23rd.
